ch Sunday are reprinted, at the end of the month, in the library's month!

bulletin. Copies of this may be obtained free at the library or will be sent by mail for 15 cents a year. French Language and Literature. Bacourt, P. D., and Cunliffe, J. W., eds. French of To-day, Y39-9B133. Bousier, Gaston, L'Academie Francaise sous l'Ancien Regime, 1909, ZY39-B634. Blum, Alice. Oral French Method. X39C-B8180. Gallichan, W. M., comp. The Soldiers' English and French Conversation Book. X39-G136s. Harvitt, H. J., ed. Contes Divers. X39R-nes, Francis, Ma Fille Bernadette, Y39

K5840.
Latham, A. G. The Oxford Treasury of French Literature. V. I. 1915. Y39-91344.
Pleard, J. A. Cortina Freuch-English and English-French Military Dictionary. X89-P582c. Regnier, H. F. J. de. Sujets et Paysages. 1906. Y33-R296au. Wilkins, E. H., and others. First Lessons in Spoken French, X39-W654f.

French Fiction.

Acker, Paul. L'Amie Perdue; M. Barbanot, suassin. 1909. Y39F-Ac55a. Acker, Paul. L'Oiseau Vainqueur. Y39F-Ac55o. Bourget, Paul. Lazarine. Y39F-B681. Eckhoud, Georges. The New Carthage. Y39F-24n F. Farrere, Claude, pseud. Quatorze Histoires di dats. Y39F-F245q. Formont, Maxime. Le Peche de la Morte. 1803. Y39F-F76Tpe. Frapie, Leon. Le Captaine Dupont, Y39F-F866c. Frapie, Leon. La Liseuse, 1911. Y39F-F866 L Hermant, Abel. Le Carnvanserail. Y39Fmaeckers, Henry, Aeropolis, 1969, Y391 nater, Camille. Quand J'etais Homme 1907. Y39F-L546q. Leroux, Gaston, Le Chateau Noir, Y39F-Leroux, Gaston. Le Chatesu Notes de Roule-Leroux, Gaston. Les Etranges Notes de Roule-tobille. YSSF-LöSdet. Margueritte, Victor, Le Petit Roi d'Ombre, 1909. YSBF-M335p. Martel, Tancrede, Le Prince de Hanau. 1907. S9F-M394p. Philippe, C. L. Contes du Matin. Y39F-P535c. Palchari, Ernest. L'Appel des Armes. Y39Fnier, H. F. J. de. Le Passe Vivant. 1911.

o'clock last night. Shortly after the hold-up Policeman

Hall of the eighth precinct arrested Raymond F. Millbery, colored, nineteen of 1433 Corcoran street northwest, on o'clock Friday night.

At police headquarters yesterday Millbery is said to have admitted his will to Inspector C. L. Grant, who said that the colored youth told him that he did not have his room rent and needed money. Millbery stated, ache did not have his room rent and needed money. Millbery stated, according to Grant, that he tied a hand-kerchief across the lower part of his face, but denied he had a revolver. He is said to have declared he pointed a monkey-wrench at Rode and later threw it in some weeds near the scene.

BUSINESS SERVICE FLAG HAS A HUNDRED STARS

Represents High School Students Now in Service of Country-Other School Activities.

A service flag with 100 stars representing former Business High School Gilder. students now in the service of their country will be raised with appropriate country will be raised with appropriate proofroom, is in Harrisburg. Pa., where he was called the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his father. ceremonies Wednesday afternoon at the helped in making the flag.

SUIT OVER DAMAGED AUTO.

J. Leo Kolb Seeks to Recover $1,532.55 From Joy Riders.

As a sequel to a joy ride, which ended May 13 last, when an automobile crashed into a lamppost at East Potomac Park, J. Leo Kolb, owner of the machine, has filed suit in the District Supreme Court to recover $1,532.55 from lliam J. Colby, R. Hamilton Harrison, Frederick K. Hueter and Minnie Sheer said to have been occupants of the ma-chine at the time of the collision. Through attorney David Wiener, Mr. Kolb says the machine was taken from a garage without his permission, and garage without his permission, and by reason of the collision was dam-ged seriously.

(Copyright, 1917, by H. C. Pisher, Trade mark

By BUD FISHER.

don and Joseph F. West have been on the sick report of the sanitary section the past week.

J. S. O'Connell, a former employe of the office, now secretary-treasurer of New York Typographical Union, has sent invitations to many of his friends in this city to attend the annual reception and ball of "Big Six." to be held in New York city Thanksgiving eve.

Bert Elliott and Milton L. Leffier of the proofroom have been detailed to the State Department to read proof on the public laws.

State Department to read proof on the public laws.

Edward Burkholder, chairman of the memorial committee of Columbia Typographical Union, announces that the committee has perfected the program for the fifteenth annual memorial service in honor of the departed members of No. 101 next Sunday afternoon. Rev. Earle Wilfley, pastor of Vermont Avenue Christian Church, will deliver the principal address, followed by remarks by Chairman Burkholder. Secretary George G. Seibold will call the roll of deceased members. Harrison's orchestra will furnish music, and there will be solos by Miss Richie McLean, Mrs. Bertha Hanson Gottsman and Roy Gilder.

Maker-up E. E. Shott of the specifica-

The students of the school will present a play called "A Proposal Under Difficulties" Wednesday afternoon.

Two of the teachers, Misses I. M. Campbell and S. L. Drane, are obtaining addresses of the Business boys now in the service to send to them.

Fahey, counter, resigned. Isaac R. Booth, skilled laborer; Cecil B. Gay, probational pressman.

Transfers, etc.—Frank R. Trimble, emergency to probational compositor, 50 cents per hour; Aloysius R. Thompson, caster helper, 25 cents per hour, to helper, 45 cents per hour, to helper, 45 cents per hour, to helper, 55 cents per hour, to folding machine operator, 40 cents per hour; Miss Elsie M. Peyton, skilled laborer, 25 cents per hour, to folding machine operator, 40 cents per hour; John A. Delawder, counter to helper, 35 cents per hour; Charles H. Gardner, estimater, $6.40 per day, to copy editor, 65 cents per hour; Hugh Rutland, assistant messenger, $720 per annum; Miss Nina Urner, clerk, $900, to clerk, $1,000 per annum; Eugene W. Blackford, skilled laborer, $626 per annum, to assistant messenger, $720 per annum; William A. Leonard, Aubrey A. Mayo, Leslie L. Freeman, bookbinders, 50 cents per hour, to machine operators, 55 cents per hour, Frank Bates, Levi of ents per hour, to machine operators, 5 cents per hour; Frank Bates, Levi Bertha Hanson Gottsman and Roy Rilder.

Edward L. Rohm, reader in the night proofroom, is in Harrisburg. Pa., where he was called the first of the week on account of the serious illness of his lather.

Charles H. C. Dickinson. skilled lather than the country of the serious illness of his lather. borers, 25 cents per hour, to helpers 35 cents per hour; Stephen E. Hollins George L. Abendschein, jr., skilled laborers, 25 cents per hour, to machine helpers, 35 cents per hour.

BUREAU OF ENGRAVING

Ing addresses of the Business boys now in the service to send to them comfort bags being knitted by the Red Cross Busiliary of the school in time for Christmas. These bags will contain books, playing cards, chewing gum and other incidentals. The Girls' Club is knitting wristlets for the boys in the service, and the Arts Club is making Christmas cards which will go in the comfort bags bearing a greeting from the students of Business to the former Business boys.

W. J. Pastet has been elected president of the Business High School Bank. The other officers are: Miss V. N. Whupple, vice president; Miss E. C. Simpson, cashier; J. L. Beuterman, teller: Miss A. E. Gensler, head bookkeepers.

detailed to the night force on account of work now in the off work now in the officers of the monotype keyboard section, accompanied by the grand monarch of Kallipolis Grotto, left for Boston, Mass. Thursday, to take part in a creemonial by the Omar Grotto of that city held Friday.

John Van Der Schaaf, formerly an employed of the day proofroom and one of the organizers of the Violet Leaf Club, was a visitor to the office last week. He has been employed for the past four months as pay clerk at Camp Moran, Mrs. Maud M. S. Cooper, Mrs. Club, was a visitor to the office last week. He has been employed for the past four months as pay clerk at Camp Moran, Mrs. Alice Swain, Anna E. Young, Mrs. Vernleec C. Blair, Mrs. Betty B. Berkley, Mrs. Ablgail Whiteside, Alma F. Wynnpple, vice president; Miss E. C. Simpson, cashier; J. L. Beuterman, teller: Miss A. E. Gensler, head book-keeper, and Miss Helen Halley, L. E. Comley and Miss Helen Halley, L. E. Comley and Miss Harrington assistant books been on the sick list, reported for work Monday.

Cantel Elwood Porter, who died at Antonio of the large volume of work now in the office.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING.

AND PRINTING. Robert E. Daly of the linotype section, who has been on the sick list, reported for work Monday.

Capt. Elwood Porter, who died at Annapolis, Md., November 16, was formerly employed in the government printing office. He left here about thirty years ago and has resided in Annapolis since.

Frederick Gottshardt, with an emergency appointment as a messenger boy, has been assigned to the document (hand) section.

Henry D. Murray, son of Don L. Murray of the linotype section, received his commission as second lieutenant in the ordnance department of the Army. Lieut. Murray served with the troops on the Mexican border.

Merlin Hull, secretary of state, Madison, Wis., paid the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office a visit a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office and here.

A first-aid class of twenty-six members of employes in connection with a few days ago. Mr. Hull was formerly employed in the office and here.

A first-aid class of twenty-six members of employed in the office and here.

C. Maddox. Bessie F. Powell, Mrs. Davis Mrs. College and the few days ago. Mrs. Contenbus deve time and instruction given the class a committee representing the organization consisting of A. D. Calvert, Dr. H. T. Schildroth and Charles O. Doten presented Dr. Bush with a thermometer and hypodermic set. The presentation speech was made by Mr. Calvert.

Many additional employes of the presentation have been detailed to the postal card section on account of the increased work in that division.

The following members of the watch force have been on the sick report the hall. on the sixth floor. Charnere R. Wilson, the local food administrator, will be the orator for the occasion, and Public Printer Ford will preside. W. T. Pierson, author of "Sons of America," and Dr. Boyd will render the above is selection and other songs. The members of the chorus are as follows: Benjamin A. Lineback, director: Mrs. C. B. Hollinger, planist; Misses Kate M. Ellis, L. Ransdell, M. Waish, E. C. Morell, F. Maler-up C. F. Mullen of the night Hollinger, Watch of Wilson, willie V. Ruck. Y. Rock Mars. Calvert, Dr. H. T. Schildroth and Charles O. Doten presentation presenting the organization committee representing the organization of watch the representing the organization of presentation of Delay. Charles O. Doten presentation on the remometer and hypodermic set. The presentation of Gerroll, Jessie I. Vancey. Mars. Charles W. Yancey. Lenore E. Truss, Anita M. Dykes, Ethel V. Thomas, Mrs. Dorothy M. Woodson. The Presentation on account of the postal card section on account of the increased work in that division.

The following members of the watch of the order of the Blanch I. Knorl, Edith V. Wilson. Anna L. Scott. Elsie L. Newman, Vola L. Charkes, Mrs. Elaine Bryson, Mrs. Glady B. Carroll, Jessie And the first files from the files of the section o mailing of Christmas packages and time, many of the employes of the city Girls. post office take advantage of the indoor athletic facilities offered by the club, which is located in the basement of the building.

"All the World's a Stage."—Camp life isn't so very different from stage life, a besuty of interest of the building. M. of the building.

tempt to escape detection. The weight of the fuel needed and the horsepower and time spent in evading detection this way represent really a greater loss of efficiency than the loss caused by the silencers.

Ward she was touring the principal cities of England in Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest."

Soon came a triumph for the dainty little actress in "The Million." in which she played the unforgettably popular role of Beatrice Lind. Then she be-other creations; James J. Morton, the pipe organ recitals and the Hearst-Pathe news and war films. Poli's to Close Two Weeks.

AMUSEMENTS

(Continued from Sixth Page.

Owing to the lack of suitable conven tion facilities in the National Capital, the management of Poli's Theater will, for the next two weeks, lease the theater for the conventions of the Women's ter for the conventions of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and the National American Women's Suffrage Association.

Beginning Sunday, December 16, Poll's will resume the presentation of traveling attractions, including recent New York successes, the management promising to make up to its patrons with some of the most sensational and interesting attractions that have ever been shown in Washington.

"The Movie Girl."

"The Movie Girl."

"The Movie Girl."

"The Movie Girl."

"It was the same the next day. After that I fixed it so that the rehearsal did not begin until after the cleaning was begin until after the cleaning was lentertainments that have won high favor in popular vaudeville and is interested at the cosmos Theater next week. It is one of those light and breezy musical entertainments that have won high favor in popular vaudeville and is interested by the proposition of the Barrie short plays was being made, at that New York Rouse, "but put had help a they they they were salt that New York Rouse, but put have never before seen them pay the slightest attention to any rehearsal that happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"Last Monday afternoon I happened to be going on while they were at work.

"It was the same the next day. After that I fixed it so that the rehearsal," said H. G. Somers, at the Knickerbocker.

"Their work was only half done. They were both cryping and they begged me to left them stay and see how the play a singing comedienne who is also exploit the managem section is enjoying part of her annual leave.

Solution is enjoying part of her annual leave.

Charles H. Gardner of the jacket-writing section has been assigned to the editorial section of the night proof-room.

Maker-up Luke J. Bennett of the specifications division has returned from a twenty-three-day vacation.

Mrs. Martha E. Mangun, John A. Gordner Schaat, Leon R. Payne, skilled laborers, resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Hardy, Rosemary C. Lucas, Grace L. Ghormley, Elsle L. Newman, skilled laborers resigned. Eleanor C. Kating vacancy.

An increase in salary from $840 per annum has been given Miss Nellie D. Reed of the clerical force of the bureau.

Use Millean L. Section of the place of the clerical force of the bureau.

William E. Brockman, clerk, mustered into the National Army. James K. Into the National Army. Ja

It has three scenes, with music by CITY POST OFFICE.

Activities of the City Post Office Club are in full swing. Although in the midst of the rush incident to the continuity of the rush incident to the rush incident midst of the rush incident to the early son McBain, Hilda Pentland, Hazel mailing of Christmas packages and Parr, Clifton Webb, Alan Edwards, preparations to handle business at that Yonge, Jack Bohn and the Camp Fire club, which is located in the basement of the building.

The favorite pastime of the men is bowling, and during their leisure periods many of them can be found knocking down the pins on the six alleys which the clubroom contains. The stand rep show, which is the best training the Christmas rush to the club. During the Christmas rush the league bowling ordinarily is suspensed and is immediately resumed foil. To make a consight stand salary. The beliboy blows the stand rep show, which is the best training the Christmas rush to the league bowling ordinarily is suspensed and is immediately resumed foil. To make a consight stand salary. The beliboy blows the league bowling ordinarily is suspensed and is immediately resumed foil. To make a consight stand salary. The beliboy blows the league bowling ordinarily is suspensed and is immediately resumed foil. The construction of the club. During the Christmas rush the league bowling ordinarily is suspensed and is immediately resumed foil. The construction of the club. The construction of the club and train with nine-foot spears in pregular Nead Wayburn formations and varieties are aways named so patriotically. We have "morning reheareals," with mops and brooms. Every chap is his own wardrobe mistress.

Tool and billiared also find much fairs of the club.

M. O. Chance, postmaster, takes an alight show on the telephone switch-board, as I've been detailed for plug bushing—it's a regular "Swiss bell-ringing act," and, oh, the applause of the club, and the construction of the teams. William Sheries are constructed in processing the construction of the teams. William Sheries are constructed in the construction of the club, and the club and the construction of the club, and the construction of the the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of his sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian animals.

The sistrum was carried in processions by the wives and daughters of the sacred Egyptian blank and lightly shaken, the bars making a dillegate sound that betokened joy, and was produced in New York last week with a strong cast headed by Violet Hennis. It is said to be full of humor, the theme turning on the assistance of a dillegate having been organized last summer. Tennis courts have been old belilboy blows rights out to get our make-up off. The same summer. Tennis courts have been old belilboy blows rights out to get our make-up off. The same comed around and counts Uncle Sam's property and tucks us in for the night.

Flowers for Thanksgiving.

Consult Gude about choice flowers and artistic floral decorations. 1214 F st.—

Advertisement.

Silencers for Airplane Engines.

Silencers for Airplane Engines.

Silencers are needed on aeroplane encioned an accident which she gracefully and tucks unblushingly adventisement.

Miss Fenwick is a fative of Chicags—an accident which she gracefully and tucks unblushingly adventisement.

Miss Fenwick is a fative of Chicags—

an accident which she gracefully and tucks unblushingly adventisement.

Silencers for Airplane Engines.

Silencers are needed on aeroplane encioned an accident which she gracefully and tucks unblushingly adventisement.

Silencers are needed on aeroplane encioned an accident which she gracefully and tucks us in for the night.

Miss Fenwick

gines to eliminate the noise of approach, which is the only thing that warns the enemy of the approaching warplanes at night. The silencers must do their work thoroughly, eliminating the exhaust sounds entirely, because the anti-aircraft units have very powerful microphones that magnify the slightest sound.

Lacking silencers—for no other reason than the added weight and slight loss of power—raiging aeroplanes are forced to fly at high altitudes in an attention of the second discovery of the desired in several prominent comedies and dramas. Henry W. Savage, Charles Frohman, A. H. Woods, William A. Brady and Cohan & Harris are among the managers who have featured Miss Fenwick. Charles Frohman gave Miss Fenwick her first really serious work in "The Brass Bottle" where she played the feminine lead so well that shortly after-work to ascane detection. The weight gines to eliminate the noise of ap-days of "Peggy From Paris," in which, came the fascinating Princess Irma in "Hawthorne of the U. S. A.," with Douglas Fairbanks. The play was exceptionally popular, and Miss Fenwick even a little bit more popular than the play. She appeared in this play in all the principal cities of the United States.

This she followed as Kitty May in Owen Davis' "The Family Cupboard," and then with the marvelous Lily Kardos of "Tae Song of Songs," her greatest triumph.

here at the Empire Theater have been on the job for years," said W. G. Newman, the house manager, recently, when the presentation of the Barrie short plays was being made, at that New York house, "but have appeared in its cast. William J. Scanlon, the famous Irish singing comedian, was in the original production, creating then character of Job, who speaks the opening line of the drama.

Lisa, the leading feminine role, has been played by Georgia Cayvan, Julia Stuart, Jeffrey Lewis, Isabel Morris, who died in Australia: Nettle Hooper, daughter of Lucy Hooper, at the time the Parls correspondent of the New York Herald; Carrie Radellife, wife of Ignatio Martinetti; Helen Collier, sister of William Collier: Lillie Thurlow, an English actress; Maude Granger, Grace Atwell and Lillian Lee Anderson.

Other notables who lent the luster of their genius to the cast were the venerable Mrs. C. C. German, a favorite at Wallack's Theater for a generation; Gustavus Levick, the original matine Wallack's Theater for a generation.

Gustavus Levick, the original matine idol; Marie Bates, a member of the original cast, and who is now with David Warfield; Dan Ralstan, Scott Davis, a beauty of international fame. A notable circumstance is that "The White

"De Luxe Annie" is to be given in Stella Mayhew is out of musical co-dy and back in vaudeville. William Hodge is starring in his new play, "A Cure for Curables." Eleanor Gates has a new play with the title "Apron Strings."

Elsie Janis, it is announced, is to Keith's here before crossing

The vital purpose of the United States Food Administration is to keep our allies in the fight until Germany is whipped. You can help by signing up as a member.

York engagement last night at the Re-public Theater,

Antoinette Walker has taken the place of Edith Taliaferro in "Mother Carey's Chickens." Max Spiegel, who operates the Strand Theater in New York, is the owner of the "Spiegel Revue of 1917."

Among the productions planned by William Faversham is a revival of Shaw's "Man and Superman," with a popular English actor in the leading

"The Melting of Molly" was produced last. week in Albany by the Shuberts, with Alma Tell in the leading role, that of a stout girl who is anxious to be reduced before her lover's return, as he has not seen her for some years.

It is reported from the Charles Frohman Campany offices in New York that so successful has been the tour of the organization appearing in the Barrie plays this season that it has been decided to make it a permanent organization, to be known as the Barrie Players, for the purpose of presenting exclusively the tabloid stage works of the great Scotch playwright.

Elsie Janis, it is announced, is coming to Keith's here before crossing to London.

James J. Corbett is appearing in "Doing Our Bit" at the New York Winter Garden.

The tour of "Captain Kidd, Jr.," will come to an end in New Haven next Saturday night.

"On With the Dance" closed its New Tokes Winter and would like to see how the old-fangled hump in new-fashioned frills is going to look on Miss 1917-18 can have their curiosity satisfied in "Going Up," the new musical comedy which is going to furnish new delights for the fair sex in a lavish display of costumes. Of course, these will be advance styles, but the bustle effect—sanctioned by Paris, if you please—is likely, to come in for most of the comment from the fair sex.

Filmograms.

ture. "Oh, Mary, Be Careful!" intro-duces an angry bull and a peach tree in full blossom, co-ordinated with one of the principals of the cast.

(Continued from Seventh Page.)

Marguerite Clark's Christmas photo play, "The Seven Swans," pictures a dozen tots two and three years old in a story and laughing episode.

Polly Moran, in a Paramount-Sennett comedy, rides into a dance hall, up a flight of stairs and lassoes the whole crowd of dancers. Sessue Hayakawa says the real jiu jitsu is a sworn secret of the Samurai class in Japan, imparted only after years of training. How useful it would be these days to the American boys in the war zone:

features at Crandall's Apollo next week popular English actor in the leading role.

Lowell Sherman and Lily Cahill have the leading roles in "Good Morning, Rosamond," by Constance Lindsey Skinner, produced for the first time last week in Atlantic City.

Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in "Sunshine Alley," Olga Petrova in "More Truth Than Poetry," Clara Kimball Young in "Magda," Geraldine Farrar in "The Woman God Forgot" and Vivian Martin in "The Trouble Buster" will be the photoplay features at Crandall's Avenue Grand next week.

Alan Dale has written a play, "The Madonna of the Future," which will be produced by Oliver Morosco. The play is said to be of a sensational nature and will have an unusually prominent cast.

Leo Dietrichstein appeared last week in New York in "The King," a satirical comedy on republican servility to petty royalty. The play was originally produced in Paris some years ago.

Charles Trowbridge has written a play, "The Marguerite Clark is pictured as a stage-struck girl in "Bab's Matinee Idol," which will be seen at Loew's Columbia next week. Many of the incidents in the story occur in a theater, and in order to secure the best effects the director rented one of the largest New York city playhouses for several days. The last half of the week Vivian Martin will be pictured in "Molly Entangled."

Charles Trowbridge has succeeded Robert Pitkin in the role of Billy Bolton, in Leave It to Jane." Mr. Pitkin is to have a prominent role in the big organization at the Century Theater playing "Miss 1917."

Adelaide Lovenberg, who stars in the six American dancers, is a daughter of Charles Lovenberg, manager of the Keith-Albee theaters at Providence and Pawtucket, R. I. She is ranked as an accomplished dancer.

The first performance of the Keith-Albee theaters at Providence and Pawtucket, R. I. She is ranked as an accomplished dancer.

The first performance of the Keith-Albee theaters at Providence and Pawtucket, R. I. She is ranked as an accomplished dancer.

The first performance of "The Star Gazer" in New York, carded for last Thursday night, had to be postponed on account of the illness of John Charles Thomas, the leading man. It is expected to open tomorrow night.

"The Melting of Molly" was produced last week in Albany by the Shuberts, with Alma Tell in the leading role, that of a stout girl who is anxious to be reduced before her lover's return, as he Square. Square. ACT TO SEE SEE

Best

A. LEESE OPTICAL CO.